

STELLA MARIS CHURCH MINISTRIES

Catholic Women's League

The League originally began under Father Thomas Glavin and was known as the 'Daughters of Stella Maris'. When Msgr. Stanley Shearer came to Stella Maris, he changed the name to Catholic Women's League. This was the first officially recognized organization in the Parish of the Archdiocese of Kingston.

Mission: Assisting in the development of true Christian spirit in the home, church and community.

The CWL began working in the Grant's Pen community with a Homework Centre for the children. They provided teachers each summer and for Sunday school. The CWL adopts 15 children each year from the New Day Primary School, assisting them with lunch money and uniforms. We also visit the Ozanam Home for the Aged, take them on outings, and provide lunches every third Sunday and at Christmas

Spiritual Activities: Annual Retreat in Mandeville; Day of Recollection; Convention at Alpha.

Come and join the CWL, journeying together as sisters in Christ who desire that the Lord's will and word be done in our lives.
